Team Members' Names:

Reference List Graphic Organizer
Book and eBooks
Name of Author	Title of Book	Publisher	Year of Publication
Write the author's last name then first name, with a comma in between and period at the end. Like this → Gibbons, Gail.	Use italics and a period at the end. Like this → The Vegetables We Eat. (If completed by hand, underline and end with a period: The Vegetables We Eat.)	EPIC is the publisher for eBooks. Capitalize the publisher and use a comma at the end. Like this → Holiday House,	Write the year of publication with a period at the end. Like this → 2008.

Websites

Name of Author	Title of Webpage	Publisher or Site	Year of Publication	URL
Write the author's last name then first name, with a comma in between and a period at the end. Like this → Phillips, Sarah.	Write the title in "quotes" with a period at the end. Like this→ "The Ugly Produce Problem and Food Waste."	Use italics and a period at the end. Like this → Ugly Produce Is Beautiful. (If completed by hand, underline and end with a period: Ugly Produce Is Beautiful.)	Write the year of publication with a period at the end. Like this → 2008.	This is the link to the website. You can copy and paste it from the search bar. Like this → https://www.uglyproduceisbeautiful.com/ugly-produce-problem.html

Videos

Name of Creator	Title of Video	Publisher or Site	Year of Publication	URL
Write the author's last name then first name, with a comma in between with a period at the end. Like this → Wilber, Wendy.	Use italics and a period at the end. Like this → Plant Parts You Eat. (If completed by hand, underline and end with a period: Plant Parts You Eat.)	Use italics and a period at the end. Like this → YouTube.	Write the year of publication with a period at the end. Like this → 2020.	This is the link to the video. You can copy and paste it from the search bar. Like this → https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3QmpHJHI_aI